GARDENERS' CLUB SUMMER SHOW

The club held their annual show in the Reading Room on 6th July, a wet Saturday which reflected the difficult growing conditions this year. The result was a smaller show, particularly with Vegetables, Roses and Sweet Peas. However it was compensated by a larger number of entries in Home Produce and Flower Arranging. The winner of the Lannon Challenge Bowl, for the highest number of points in the Show, was Angela Deloford, with Kay Meldrum winning the Hapgood Challenge Cup as runner up. The best exhibit was won by Elizabeth Watson for her Quiche Lorraine.

The winners of the various classes were:
Flower Arranging: Sheena Salmon/Dilly Smewing, Rose Classes: Angela Deloford, Flower Classes excluding Floral Arrangements and Pot Plants: Angela Deloford, Fuschia Classes: Angela Deloford, Vegetable Classes: Jeff Jones, Pot Plant Classes: Angela Deloford, Home Produce Classes: Elizabeth Watson, Children's Classes: Charlotte Lowe, Fruit Classes: Kay Meldrum
Handicraft Classes: Jo Smewing

Rosette for Best in Section
Flower Arranging: Sheena Salmon, Roses: Angela Deloford, Flowers: Angela Deloford, Fuschias: Angela Deloford, Vegetables: Sarah Massey, Pot Plants: Sheena Salmon, Home Produce: Elizabeth Watson, Children: Leo Burse, Fruit: Sarah Massey, Handicraft: Jo Smewing

The Dr Kingsley-Jones Rose Trophy was presented to the winner this year by his widow Joyce Kinsley-Jones, who is in her 100th year, as would have been her husband. She was presented with a posy made by Sheena Salmon.

Joyce Kingsley-Jones and Elizabeth Watson

A view of the Show before judging.

Alistair Meldrum